

Promote your business through the Logicreative Design networking event!

Networking Event Sponsor: $99

Networking Event Sponsors will have their business logo, name and website address (or contact information for those without websites) on ALL the event's marketing materials and will be a one-month sponsor of the Logicreative Design e-newsletter ($35 value).

Networking Event Sponsors also receive all of the benefits offered to those offering door prizes and a Photo Book Sponsor's full-page ad ($40 value).

Door Prize Offerer

Those who bring a Door Prize Offering will be allowed a one-minute elevator speech to promote their business and have their promotional materials such as business cards on display throughout the event.

The Maximizing Your Networking Potential event is photographed by a professional photographer and the photos are compiled into a printed and online Photo Book. You can promote your business by having a full page ad designed by Logicreative Design with your photo from the event, name, business name, website address or contact information.

The Photo Book will be available online on the Logicreative Design Facebook page to all 380+ Friends (and their Friends), on the Logicreative Design website, and a link to the online Photo Book will be posted on the Logicreative Design LinkedIn page 500+ connections, Twitter page 120+ followers, e-newsletter 700+ subscribers, and Jennifer Garcia's blog.

The printed Photo Book will be used to promote this event and what Logicreative Design does to potential clients. The printed Photo Book will be on the Logicreative Design table when exhibiting at various expos, networking events, and when meeting with potential/current clients. To purchase a printed Photo book $55.

To promote your business, please email us your name, business name, website address or contact information (for those who do not have a website), as you want it listed, and send a check in the appropriate amount to:
