About Us Page

Cindy's Creative Designs is the brainchild of Cynthia V. Smith. Having a passion for jewelry and fashion, Cindy has invested her creativity and energy into making her own jewelry line.

Cindy believes that each woman is a gem in her own way and so she should have jewelry that is custom made to her own style.

Cindy has studied the various techniques to create jewelry and has taken it to the next level with her own creative designs.

You can choose from her current product line or have her create a custom piece just for you.
